NICE ACADEMIES

Are structured learning and networking events for professionals and academic trainers in the field of career guidance and counselling. Through its annual Academies, the NICE Foundation aims to support excellence and innovation in the academic training of career practitioners across Europe and to promote the professionalization of career guidance and counselling.

JOIN THE EVENT TO...

- ◆ Learn about innovative practices of career support & practitioner training
- ◆ Exchange good practices with career practitioners and specialists across borders
- ◆ Discuss, how practice and training for career guidance and counselling can be improved
- ◆ Network with practitioners and academics across disciplines and European countries
- ◆ Engage in the development of joint projects for the future
